5.3. Interest Bonus Calculation Rules

The details of the Participant's accrued Interest Bonus can be found under "My Rewards".
Daily Interest Bonus = Daily Net Deposit * Corresponding Interest Bonus Rate on That Day
(Daily Interest Bonus + Additional Interest Bonus, if applicable) * 1/360

For example, if Participant A makes the first deposit of SGD10,000 on 5 Oct, the Interest Bonus will be automatically unlocked. On 5 Oct, the daily net deposit is SGD10,000 and the daily interest bonus will be  $\text{SGD}10,000 * 1.0\% * 1/360 = \text{SGD}0.27$ . If Participant B makes the first deposit and reaches a Daily Net Deposit to SGD200,000 on 1 Oct, completes 6 buy trades from 1 Oct to 1 Nov, and makes no withdrawal or shares transfer-out, the daily interest bonus from 1 Oct to 1 Nov will be  $\text{SGD}200,000 * (2.5\% + 1.0\%) * 1/360 = \text{SGD}19.44$ .

<sup>1</sup> US Stocks, ETFs, Options, HK Stocks, and HK ETFs related fees charged by regulators, exchanges, and third-party institutions may still apply. For more details, please go to our pricing page at <https://www.webull.com.sg/pricing>

<sup>4</sup>The quantity of shares awarded is computed based on the previous day's closing price of the security after the Participant claims the reward. Please note the price of the shares obtained is based on the previous day's closing price, after the reward is claimed by the Participant. The stock price for the fractional share rewards is subject to fluctuation at any time, and Webull will not provide compensation for any losses caused by price volatility. The actual fractional shares reward will be in USD and calculated using the exchange rate of SGD 1 = USD0.7297. If you do not click to claim your reward under the "My Rewards" page within 30 days after it appears, the reward will not be claimed automatically to your account, and any unclaimed rewards will be forfeited.

<sup>5</sup>The Interest Bonus is calculated daily based on the accrued interest and will be paid out monthly. To get the Daily Interest Bonus, you must make your first deposit during the Campaign Period and accumulate at least SGD10,000 in Daily Net Deposit within 30 days of first deposit. Once the SGD10,000 Daily Net Deposit requirement is met, you will earn interest bonus for each day your Daily Net Deposit remains at or above SGD 10,000 during the 180-day period.

If you fail to accumulate at least SGD10,000 in Daily Net Deposit within 30 days of first deposit, you will not be eligible for the Daily Interest Bonus.

2. How can I get the Extra Interest Bonus?

This bonus is unlocked after completing 6 buy trades during the 180-day period. It will be calculated and applied in the same manner as the Daily Interest Bonus.

3. How will I receive the Interest Bonus?

The Interest Bonus is calculated daily based on the accrued interest and will be paid out monthly. The conversion from SGD to USD will be processed at a fixed exchange rate of SGD1.00 = USD0.7297. The total accrued interest for the month will be displayed on the 5th of the following month under the “My Rewards” page and credited to your account within 19 calendar days after the display date.

4. How is my Daily Net Deposit calculated?

For example, on 01/10/2025, you funded SGD10,000, and invested the full amount into TSLA shares. On 02/10/2025, price of TSLA shares dropped, and the total value of your investment now is SGD9,000. You would still qualify for the interest bonus, as it is calculated based on the funds deposited and not the market value of your investment. However, if on 03/10/2025, you withdrew SGD1,000, you will not qualify for the interest bonus as your Daily Net Deposit would fall below SGD10,000.
